

Henderson – Boulder City – Lake Mead

RIVER MOUNTAINS LOOP TRAIL GUIDE

Welcome to the River Mountains Loop Trail

When completed, the River Mountains Loop Trail will be approximately 35 miles in length and will surround the scenic River Mountains connecting Lake Mead National Recreation Area, Hoover Dam, Henderson, Boulder City and other portions of the Las Vegas Valley.

Presently, more than 11 miles of trail are open. To better accommodate a wide variety of outdoor enthusiasts, you'll find trail segments 24 feet in width, including a 12-foot-wide paved trail for hikers and road cyclists, and a second trail for equestrian use.

River Mountains Loop Trail Profile

Trailheads

Four trailheads have been completed. They are located at or near:

- ❖ Equestrian in Henderson
- ❖ Railroad Pass between Henderson and Boulder City
- ❖ Pacifica Way in Boulder City
- ❖ Historic Railroad in Lake Mead National Recreation Area

All have ample parking, and three have restroom facilities on-site or nearby.