

National Trails Day Celebration 2010

Saturday, October 9, 2010

*Sponsored by the City of Henderson
Parks and Recreation Department*

Deadline Sept. 17, 2010
Exhibit space is free to qualified organizations and groups.
Standard space size 10' x 10'
Larger space may be available upon request.

The annual National Trails Day Celebration sponsored by the City of Henderson offers a unique opportunity for trail and outdoor-oriented organizations and groups. National Trails Day promotes awareness of local and regional trails throughout the Las Vegas Valley and attracts hundreds of outdoor enthusiasts from Henderson and surrounding communities. It is the largest and most visible trail event in Southern Nevada.

The 2010 event will be held at the Promenade at the Pavilion, located adjacent to The District at Green Valley Ranch, Henderson Multigenerational Center, Paseo Verde Library, and easily accessible from the 215 Beltway.

Why are we hosting this event?

- Celebrate National Trails Day
- Increase awareness and use of local and regional trails throughout the Las Vegas Valley and surrounding communities
- Provide an opportunity for trail users to learn and interact with trail and outdoor organizations and groups

Who can exhibit?

- Government organizations that provide trails and outdoor opportunities.
- Established organizations, friends of groups, partnerships, societies, foundations, associations, and user groups that promote or advocate for trails and outdoor opportunities.
- Businesses with a connection to trails and outdoor opportunities.
- All other groups deemed by the National Trails Day Committee to promote, provide, or advocate for trails and outdoor opportunities. A business license and/or other governing documents may be required to provide proof of an established organization.

What do we want your group to do at our event?

- Promote your organization or group and its connection to trails
- Engage participants so they visit your exhibit and learn about what you have to offer
- Create an interactive booth/display/activity so participants will remember your information/education/message
- Promote your upcoming trail and outdoor recreation opportunities
